GYLFI SIGFÚSSON, PRESIDENT AND CEO

“The third quarter 2018 was the company’s largest quarter in terms of revenue since 2009, however the EBITDA results for third quarter 2018 are below our expectations. The main reasons for lower EBITDA in the quarter relate to EUR 1.7 million lower results in the operation in Norway as transported volume decreased and breakdown of reefer vessels had a negative impact on the results. In addition, the results from the freight forwarding segment was EUR 1.4 million lower compared to previous year.

There are four main reasons for the decrease in EBITDA in the first nine months 2018. Firstly, it relates to lower results in Norway as previously stated. Secondly, at the end of last year the company added on a third vessel on its North American route, to fulfill the weekly service goal to support the Trans-Atlantic and Short-Sea trade. The growth in volume and revenues realized much slower than we anticipated but in recent weeks, we have seen increased bookings and we anticipate seeing the growth turning into positive margins. We are also putting more focus on sales in the Trans-Atlantic and Short-Sea trade. Thirdly, the trade tension and the consolidation of the big shipping lines is affecting our freight forwarding business. In addition, the company faced a loss of agency services for a shipping line in Europe, which negatively affected the third quarter results. Going forward, we expect freight forwarding to gain strength and the turbulence around the mergers and consolidation with the deep-sea lines is getting back to normal. Finally, a decrease in imports of vehicles and equipment to Iceland has negatively affected our results but exports from Iceland has been growing.

The company expects to realize gains from a number of short-term initiatives to improve the operation and its profitability going forward. We have off-hired one vessel in Norway and we are evaluating a restructuring of the vessel fleet and adapting the business to changes in the Norwegian market. We are working on fine-tuning the container sailing system, with more favorable terminal contracts. We are also working on lowering both our container cost and charter agreements for vessels. Reduction in salary cost is under evaluation, through more automation and back-office setup and through further lay-offs. We are implementing a new platform for our freight forwarding business that will connect our offices through the same system, which will increase operational and sales synergies between the offices. The emphasis of proactive sales in the Trans-Atlantic and Short-Sea business is an ongoing task.

It is positive to see the volume growth in the third quarter in Eimskip’s liner segment, driven by 6.2% growth in container liner volume in relation to the Trans-Atlantic trade and exports from Iceland.

The forwarding sector has been going through some difficulties that relates to turbulence around the mergers of the big shipping lines and their alliances. Forwarding has also been affected by the trade tensions in most of the markets but still the volume growth is around 5.5% mainly driven by dry cargo.

The new building program of the two specialized 2,150 TEUs container vessels is proceeding with estimated delivery in the second half of 2019. The Icelandic Competition Authority is evaluating the intended co-operation with Royal Arctic Line.

The EBITDA guidance for the year 2018 was changed on 26 September and is EUR 49 to 53 million.”

THIRD QUARTER OPERATIONS

Eimskip's revenue amounted to EUR 182.2 million in the third quarter 2018 compared to EUR 173.9 million in the same period last year, up EUR 8.3 million or 4.8%. Transported volume in the liner services grew 3.9%, driven by 6.2% growth in container liner volume in relation to Trans-Atlantic trade, Iceland and the Faroe Islands but Norway decreased by 13.1%. Liner services revenue amounted to EUR 116.5 million, up 3.9% from last year. Transported volume in the forwarding services grew 5.5%, mainly driven by 36.5% growth in dry forwarding but reefer forwarding decreased by 5.2%. Forwarding revenues amounted to EUR 65.7 million, a growth of 6.4% from last year.

Total expenses in the third quarter were EUR 164.5 million compared to EUR 154.6 million in the same quarter last year, up by EUR 9.9 million or 6.4%. The liner services expenses amounted to EUR 99.0 million, up by 4.5%. The increase is explained by expansion of capacity in the sailing system and higher fuel cost. Also higher salary cost, related to general wage and activity increase. There were challenges in the Norway operation in the quarter, with breakdown of vessels which negatively affected the operation. Forwarding services expenses were EUR 65.5 million, up 9.5%, which is mainly explained by growing transport volumes and higher freight rates from the deep-sea lines.

EBITDA for the quarter amounted to EUR 17.6 million compared to EUR 19.3 million in the third quarter last year, a decrease of EUR 1.7 million or 8.6%. EBITDA from the company's liner services was EUR 13.6 million in the quarter compared to EUR 13.8 million in the third quarter last year, down by EUR 0.2 million or 1.5%. The results from the Norway operation decreased by EUR 1.7 million in the third quarter compared with previous year due to lower transported volume and breakdown of reefer vessels. On the other hand, the domestic operation in Iceland and exports from Iceland has been going well. EBITDA from the company's forwarding services was EUR 4.1 million, compared to EUR 5.5 million in the third quarter last year, a decrease of 26.2%. The decrease relates to contraction in reefer forwarding and the company faced a loss of agency services for a shipping line in Europe, which negatively affected the third quarter results, among others due to lay-offs of employees.

Depreciation and amortization amounted to EUR 7.9 million, up by EUR 0.3 million or 4.4% compared to the previous year, but in line with recent quarters.

Net finance expense amounted to EUR 1.3 million in the third quarter compared to net finance expense in the amount of EUR 1.7 million in the same period last year.

Net earnings for the third quarter amounted to EUR 6.3 million compared to EUR 8.8 million for the same period 2017, down EUR 2.5 million.

NINE MONTHS OPERATIONS

Total expenses of the company were EUR 470.5 million compared to EUR 442.8 million in the same period last year, up by EUR 27.7 million or 6.3%. The expense increase is explained by the expansion of capacity in the sailing system, higher fuel cost, , general wage and activity increase, growing transport volumes, higher freight rates from the deep sea lines and breakdown of reefer vessels.

EBITDA for the period amounted to EUR 39.8 million compared to EUR 45.3 million for the first nine months last year, down by EUR 5.5 million or 12.1%. The main reasons for lower EBITDA results relate to increased capacity of the sailing system in relation to Trans-Atlantic and Short-Sea services, lower results from the Norway operation and contraction in reefer forwarding. On the other hand, the operation in Faroe Islands has been doing well and the same goes for Iceland, except for lower imports to Iceland of cars and equipment.

Net earnings for the first nine months amounted to EUR 9.3 million compared to EUR 13.9 million for the same period last year, down EUR 4.6 million.

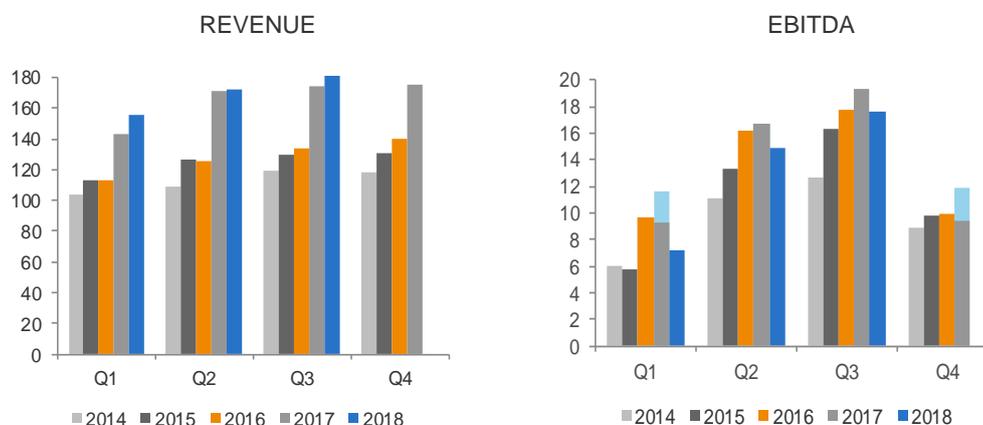

The following graphs show that transported volume for the first nine months in the company’s liner and forwarding services has been gradually increasing 2014 to 2018 compared to the same period the year before. The volume index on the right axis is based on the 2010 volume as 100.

Volume growth in the Faroe Islands is estimated to be stable while volume in Norway is expected to decrease from previous year. Competition will remain strong in the market area, especially in the company's North Atlantic liner operation.

Reefer forwarding has experienced a contraction during the year and tension in the markets is expected to continue, however looking forward the prospects are positive.

The company is working on various initiatives, which will improve the operation and its profitability, e.g. off-hire of one vessel in Norway, lowering of operational container cost and reduction in charter rates, reduction in salary cost, fine-tuning of the sailing system, increased synergies between offices and other measures.
